Production

- Collect IPCs at end of turn based on territory controlled
 - Contested territory is not included
- Spend IPCs and choose deployment locations
 - Unit count limited to territory value
 - SC's offer discount
 - Deploy location chosen at turn start
 - Units deployed at end of turn

Turn Order

- Spend IPCs and choose deployment locations
- Combat movement
 - Movements must result in combat
- Combat resolution
 - 1 Air Superiority round per battle
 - 3 rounds of Land/Sea combat
- Non-combat movement
 - Only non-air units that didn't perform combat movements
 - Air units move during combat and non-combat phases
 - Must land in allied territory or on aircraft carriers
- Capture territory
- Collect IPCs
- Propose or withdraw from alliances

Combat

- Limited to 3 rounds
- Roll attack die for each unit
 - Roll $\geq$ defense equals a hit
 - Deal damage equal to the damage rating

- Target is chosen randomly from eligible units (Defense $\leq$ roll)
 - Twice as likely to hit the same unit type
- Max number on the die always hits
 - Choose from among the next lowest defense
 - Half damage - rounded down
- Recovering:
 - Damage persists. Units that have not engaged in combat since the start of their previous turn return to full HP at the start of the turn.
- Attacker rolls all attacks
 - Defending casualties are noted but not removed
- Defender rolls all attacks
 - Attacking and defending casualties are removed
- Capture territory if all enemies are removed and ground units remain

Air Superiority:

- Attacking fighters create a 1-round air superiority combat before main combat
 - Limited to air units

Combat Bonuses

- Units that receive a combat bonus receive:
 - Increase in attack die size
 - Max of D12
 - +1 defense
 - Max of 10

Promotion

- Units gain XP
 - 1 xp for surviving a round of combat
 - 1 xp for dealing damage in combat
 - -1 xp for receiving damage
- 5 XP grants a promotion
 - Each promotion grants a permanent combat bonus
- Units can be demoted

Alliances

- 2 or 3 powers can join in alliances
 - Depending on game settings
- Can withdraw from an alliance OR invite 1 power to join an alliance
 - Can invite one other power to join an alliance at turn end
 - They immediately choose to accept or reject
 - Can withdraw from an alliance at the end of the turn
 - Can't withdraw from an alliance while you have units in an allied Strategic Center

- Occupied former ally territories become contested
 - Former ally gets a combat bonus in the first round of combat to reclaim territories
- Allies can move through each other's territories without claiming them
 - Units don't fight each other
- When attacking space contested by other powers, choose which non-aligned power you are attacking
 - Allies will defend together

Transport and Amphibious Operations

- Land units can traverse water spaces
 - Become transports in marine spaces
 - One transport per unit
 - Grant +1 move bonus
 - Moving in and out of transports/marine spaces costs a move
 - Unit is destroyed with transport
 - Transports that survive a naval battle can continue a combat move into adjacent land
- Territories being attacked by transported land units get a combat bonus in the first round of combat
 - No bonus if non-amphibious land troops are attacking

Contested Territory

- An attack with units remaining on both sides after the 3rd round of fighting will result in a contested territory
- The territory still belongs to its original owner
- It contributes to neither power's IPC total
- Only infantry from the owning power can be mustered in the territory
- Units can move out of the territory as a combat move
 - Can't move into uncontested enemy territory

Setup

- Each power begins with 25 ICP worth of territories
 - Each territory has a value 0-5
- Start with 50 (2x) IPC of deployed units
 - Promote 3 units
- 3 Strategic Centers
 - Grant +2 value to territory

Victory Conditions

- Power is eliminated when they control 1 (or 0) Strategic Centers

- Original or captured
 - Contested SCs count as still controlled
 - Remove remaining units from the board on elimination
- Game ends when there are no unallied powers
